

Southern Charms

April 8-15, 2022

Sweet tea and the sea. Magnolias and muscadine. Fresh, ripe peaches and inviting, pillared porches. Follow the oak-lined streets to the endless delights awaiting in the genteel South. Beginning and ending in Atlanta, this southern U.S. tour stops in the capital city of Columbia before heading to the Spanish moss-draped coast of South Carolina and Georgia. Savor the high style of Charleston's King Street as well as its delectable low country cuisine. Clippity-clop down the mansion-lined lanes of picturesque Beaufort in a horse-drawn carriage. Walk in the footsteps of Vanderbilts and Rockefellers at the once ultra-exclusive Jekyll Island Club. Board an open-air trolley to discover the famed squares of storied Savannah. A visit to the American Prohibition Museum's Speakeasy is the perfect place to raise a glass to your newfound accent, as well as your newly discovered love of shrimp and grits, she-crab soup, and fried green tomatoes. Cheers, y'all!

Day 1, Friday, Apr. 8: Atlanta. Welcome to Georgia! After arrival, the day is free to explore Atlanta before meeting your Tour Director and fellow traveling companions at 6pm for a welcome drink. Overnight at Hotel Colee or similar for 2 nights.

Day 2, Saturday, Apr. 9: Atlanta. The adventure begins with a guided sightseeing tour to include Centennial Olympic Park, the historic Fox Theatre, the Buckhead neighborhood and the Martin Luther King, Jr. National Historic Site. Enjoy free time this afternoon before dinner at Pittypat's Porch with the group. (B,D)

Day 3, Sunday, Apr. 10: Columbia & Charleston. The next stop is Columbia, South Carolina's capital. An orientation tour will get you familiar with the city before having some free time to explore on your own before continuing on to Charleston. Overnight at Renaissance Charleston or similar for 2 nights. (B)

Day 4, Monday, Apr. 11: Charleston. This morning you will start with an orientation tour of this iconic southern city, followed by a guided visit to Boone Hall Plantation and Gardens with a Gullah luncheon. The remainder of the day will be free to take in the sites and enjoy the great food of Charleston. Maybe look for those souvenirs at the Charleston City Market. Or maybe take in some history and board a real aircraft carrier, the USS Yorktown. So many things to see and do! (B,L)

Day 5, Tuesday, Apr. 12: Beaufort & Savannah. A trip to the Charleston area would not be complete without a horse-drawn carriage tour. Enjoy this iconic activity in Beaufort, one of the quaint coastal towns of South Carolina. The next stop is Savannah, known for its beautiful coastal landscapes, well-preserved architecture and rich, vibrant history. Upon arrival, you will visit the American Prohibition Museum with costumed guides and a classic cocktail in the Speakeasy. Overnight at Embassy Suites by Hilton Historic Savannah or similar for 3 nights. (B)

Day 6, Wednesday, Apr. 13: Savannah. After breakfast, you will learn about Savannah on a trolley tour with a local guide. The rest of the day is free to enjoy Savannah! (B)

Day 7, Thursday, Apr. 14: Jekyll Island & St. Simons Island. There are many small islands on the South Carolina coast and you will experience two of them today. Start with a trolley tour of the Club Historic District on Jekyll Island followed by a farewell lunch at the historic Jekyll Island Club. Next, head to St. Simons Island for an orientation drive with free time to explore on your own. This evening, enjoy a final night in Savannah on your own. (B,L)

Day 8, Friday, Apr. 15: Atlanta. Sadly, your Southern adventure will come to an end today as you head back to Atlanta for your flight home after 3pm. But you will have so many wonderful memories and great new friends to keep the Southern spirit alive. (B)
